

News Release

Interim Aviation Director Mark Webb and Public Relations Manager David Hebert serve as co-hosts on the television program "Airport Airwaves."

TV Show "Airport Airwaves" Grabs Statewide Award

The television show "Airport Airwaves" has earned a bronze award in the Texas Public Relations Association's 2006 Silver Spur/Best of Texas Competition. Each year the T.P.R.A. recognizes "the finest work produced by public relations professionals throughout the state."

Representatives from San Antonio International Airport will receive the award at a banquet to be held in Austin on February 25.

The "Best of Texas" Awards look for outstanding achievement in samples provided by private public relations firms, governmental entities and non-profit organizations. The award for San Antonio International Airport comes in the category of "digital series presentation." "Airport Airwaves" is a thirty minute television program which airs on TVSA Channel 21 and focuses on the people, programs and stories which make up San Antonio International Airport.

The program is produced by Public Relations Manager David Hebert, who also serves as co-host. Interim Aviation Director Mark Webb also co-hosts the program and Public Information Officer Janet Meza serves as the reporter. You can catch this award-winning show on Tuesdays at 9pm, Wednesdays at 11am and on Fridays at 1:30 pm.

Congratulations to all those who play a role in bringing "Airport Airwaves" to the screen!

Public Information Officer Janet Meza is the reporter on the "Airwaves" program